FRANKLIN COUNTY LIBRARY PATRON APPLICATION

I agree to obey all the rules and regulations of the Franklin County Library, to pay promptly all fines charged against me, for the injury or loss of materials, and to give immediate notice of any change of address or phone number. I understand that failure to comply with library rules and regulations may result in termination of my borrowing privileges. I also understand that if the library's attempt to recover overdue materials and/or unpaid fines or fees fails, the library shall then contact authorities for their assistance in the recovery of materials and payment of fines or fees.

Ask to see library policy for complete rules, policy and regulations.

Franklin Co. Library Computer & Internet Use & Safety Policy

Franklin County Library is committed to serving the information and lifelong learning needs of all its patrons. Providing access to computers and the Internet provides the opportunity to enhance our existing collection by connection to information networks from around the world.

Disclaimer:

- The library has no control over the information accessed through the internet and cannot be held responsible for its content.
- Users are responsible for materials that are accessed from the Internet.
- The library assumes no responsibility for any direct or indirect damages arising from the use of its connection to Internet services or any other damages incurred from use of Internet or library computers.
- While "Instant Messaging" is prohibited, chatting or other forms of direct instant communication is discouraged but not prohibited.

Computer and Internet Use Policy:

- Access time will be limited to 1 hour, unless determined otherwise by authorized staff.
- E-mail may be sent and received if users have their own e-mail account.
- Multiple family members will be allowed to use the computers at the same time, but only according to availability of computers to other users.
- Parents/Guardians of Internet users under the age of 17 must sign a policy acceptance form before their children will be allowed to use the library computers. Parents must understand that the library staff cannot monitor or provide supervision as children explore the Internet. Responsibility for what minors may read or view on the Internet rests with their parents or guardians.

Printing:

A fee per page will be charged for printing from library computers. Patrons must pay for all pages they print, therefore, patrons need only print the pages they are willing to pay for.

Unacceptable Use of Computers and Workstations:

Use of the computers and the Internet is a privilege, not a right. Only materials that are acceptable by local community standards will be allowed. Any inappropriate use will result in cancellation of this privilege. Inappropriate use of the computers and the Internet includes, but is not limited to:

- Any action which destroys, alters prevents or interferes with computer-based information.
- Unauthorized tampering with computer hardware or software.
- Storage of data to anything other than a data storage device purchased from the library without approval from library staff.
- Violation of software license agreements and copyright laws.
- Violation of another user's privacy
- Any action which seeks to defraud or obtain money or other values by false representation.
- Using the library's Internet connection for commercial purposes.
- Use of Instant Messaging services are prohibited.
- Sending, receiving, or displaying text or graphics which may be construed as obscene, vulgar, profane or indecent.
- Use of personal software programs or personal storage devices is prohibited on the library computers unless permission is given by authorized library staff.

Any violation of the Computer and Internet Use and Safety Policy may subject the user to suspension of all computers for one (1) week for the first offense and two (2) materials and/or unpaid fines and/or fees may be restricted from computer use. Library staff may restrict, revoke, or refuse use of library computers at their discretion.
